They that love beyond the world can not be separated by it. Death can not kill what never dies.

. . . Nor can spirits ever be divided, that love and live in the same divine principle, the root and record, of their friendship.

. . . Death is but crossing the world as friends do the seas; they live in one another still. . . .

This is the comfort of friends, that though they may be said to die, yet their friendship and society are, in the best sense, ever present because immortal.

CLASS HISTORY of 1968

Now that we have all finally made it to our senior year and we will soon be out on our own, there are many things of the past that none of us will ever forget.

There was the Old Hatherly School where we all got our start, and in elementary school we had those great Halloween parades around the playground. Remember how Mrs. Curtis used to kiss everybody and call them, dear and darling? Remember when the girls had Mr. Smith for gym and everybody loved him? Then there was the time when he broke both of his legs, and we had to do the grand march all day around the gym with Mrs. Murphy. Girls, will we ever forget when Krisy J. moved in and everyone hated her because she could wear makeup and nylons everyday. Why was it you got sent to the office in first grade Stoney . . . you wouldn't salute the flag? And remember the visits to see the now extinct blimps in second grade? Never forget in good old Wampatuck, Mr. King's fifth grade class . . . Nobody ever did find out who stole Robert W's exhibition. How about Mr. Gleason's class that was held in the hallway because there was no where else . . . and when we all had to write letters to Diane G., because she had the measles. Who was the marble champion, Paul M.? T.L. were you ever small? Remember when everyone used to bring an apple to the teacher! Maybe we should have done that this year, huh?? And how about when we were first graders and everyone was classified as G-3 or B-14! Remember how Dave D. broke his arm during the unforgettable wind storm at Central . . . and filing down with all the other boys and girls to the boiler room to use the lavatory (if that's what you wanted to call it)? Remember Mrs. Harvey's flute lessons and Kathy Howe as the American Beauty Rose with Fred S. doing the Irish jig. Remember how Kathy Harrigan never stopped crying in the first grade . . . and on cold days how you used to have to wear slacks under your skirt. Remember in particular when one of the Silk twins got locked in the closet? Remember when T.L. and Steve R. won third prize in a turkey race? Also remember when Diane G. and Trudy C. fought over T.L. Then there was the French play that we put on for our parents in Mrs. Menslage's class. Remember when Mr. Wilson's class spent more time in the gym than the classroom and when everyone in his class had to brush his teeth after lunch each day? There was Mr. Leighton's mural, Janice's impeachment, and Art McMillin's trial for reading dirty books in class.

Then was the time when we all moved on to the Junior High for a different experience . . . and boy was it different! We'll never forget Mr. Tierney and his Christmas mice when they all multiplied and infested the school . . . and how Miss Markey's hair turned a different color each week? Remember when the nurse had a pink uniform, pink nylons, pink shoes, and pink hair? . . . and she used to check your hair for dandruff with a pencil and your feet for planters' warts . . . and how about when Miss Giles got locked in the closet . . . and her peanut butter jars that were forever on the windowsill? Remember when Bo-Bo got down on his knees in homeroom 108 . . . and Bruce L. and Mark K. playing superman out Mr. Flynn's window? Can we ever forget "Big Barb" . . . Remember Bonnie M. and Paul S. when they were fat little kids? . . . And when Mark used to say, "Yes, Ma'am." . . . and Mr. Olsen and his toupee. Remember our eighth grade trip to see Romeo and Juliet and Mr. Reade's opera glasses . . . and when Sue B. got the bracelet stuck over her elbow! Remember when George D. was everybody's flame . . . and when Mary and Phil weren't going together? There was Janice C.'s P.J. party when Kathy Howe almost drowned and Kim couldn't sleep after seeing the Twilight Zone. How about when Barbara K. thought she was a witch and Steve H. let her think so. Will we ever forget the "Mikado" and Patty T.'s part as the witch! Square dancing was always great . . . or was it??? Remember Pat K's home for wayward children . . . and when Pat and Martha fell hard for Winnie at a dance. Remember Kim Ladue's first boy-girl party and how she taught us all to be little ladies and John H. went with Heather A. . . . Remember Mr. Flynn's sensitivity every Monday morning. Remember when the art work in the Junior High girls' room almost got C.C. and M.M. suspended? . . . Remember the apple gifts for that famous boys' lunch table in eighth grade. Some of us remember when Phil S. was going with Nancy M. instead of Mary?? Remember many trips to Boston with many different accents, Margaret K. . . . and how everyone said you sounded Jewish when you spoke with an English accent, Patty S. . . . Remember Mary Henry and her scandalous stories . . . We are sure Bruce will always remember chandeliers rocking. Remember when Kathy Howe went with Billy D. and she wouldn't kiss him . . . is that still true, Kath? . . . and when Karen L. fell on her knees before Mr. Gillardi. Remember when "Harry" used to kick us all out of the harbor. Remember archery on the side field when we all got to play Robin Hood. Remember when Kim L. said she was definitely going to be "Miss America". Mr. Flynn's bell that suddenly disappeared and eating in the cafeteria and not being able to talk . . . and the food fights. Remember when Janice Raymond had a ponytail . . . and Kathy Hiney and her Hell's Angels beat up any boy who bothered you. Remember Mr. Bielski's and Mr. Corbin's great airplane contest and how nobody could get his plane to fly? Never forget Mr. Cauldwell . . . and how Mr. Bordne endeared himself to us through his kindness. Remember Miss Giles and how she policed the first floor . . . and sneaking out of your house with nylons under your knee socks . . . and when Squeaky had a squeaky voice. Remember when the fad was to wear your boyfriend's sweater—but who had a boyfriend??? How about the day when Patty A. was tracing something across Kathy Howe's back when she was struck by a blow from Lizzie's pointer . . . and when Margaret laughed so hard she lost her tooth. Rememer the great bike hikes to Nantasket, girls? Why is it Patty T. you take to phone booths??? Remember when Diane P., Sandi, and Diane G. had short hair? Remember Mary C.'s P.J. party? Did you have a nice ride in the cruiser, Patty?

Then came the year when we all moved on to the big High School. Remember getting lost in the school as Freshmen? (and again as Seniors) . . . trying to gain admittance to the Senior Girls' Room. Remember when all girls were in love with the Senior Boys! . . . Karen Keefe's little I.D. cards for some of the girls when we were freshmen . . . Remember when Diane went with Craig, she does! . . . Remember when madras was the fad, and the boys held rat days! . . . Then there was Miss Crowley's class, and Mr. Samuelson who was always annoyed at us . . . Do you remember the combined homeroom of Mrs. Greene's and Mr. Marotta's . . . was that a zoo??? . . . How about when Steve Gorman came to S.H.S. and we are sure many girls will never forget his famous dance. Remember when Pat K. was disposing of an apple core and hit Dr. Fernades? Remember when Billy S. had a horse? . . . Remember when for everybody's birthday, we celebrated with lollypops? . . . Remember when everyone was Liz's friend because of her neighbors across the street . . . Never forget the "flying food" everyday during lunches . . . and those food strikes that never worked . . . "Take me out I can't guard T.L." . . . Remember on our Freshman trip to the museums hiding behind a mummy from someone . . . Remember Lady Jane, Dennis C.?? How about the summer party at the Pitts!!! Never forget Lauren's barn. Our floats we ended up doing and all the "egg ideas" that we didn't use . . . Remember three trips around the Common and following G82 to the library parking lot . . . Remember Dicky B.'s crystals that were always missing??? And when T.L. kicked a lead pipe . . . Remember Mr. Maynard using Trudy and Barb M. for target practice . . . and how Pat K. tried to corrupt Abdel. Remember when tennis was the summer nights' activity (it still is for some of us) . . . and Captains' practice. Remember our community core questions? Then there were subs for lunch from Maria's . . . There were Cynth's eleven accidents, but mailboxes, garages, and etc. don't count . . . Girls, will we ever forget Mr. Mahoney, Mr. Nord, and Mr. Johnson?? Never forget our excursion to Cohasset in search of items for the Prom . . . The bird bath episodes for "Our Touch of Venus" . . . Our Senior Show—that fabulous snow at the "fini" that everyone almost suffocated from . . . Never forget good old Falconhurst and some of the finer memories . . . the flips in Pat's living room. Remember the new hangout, Kandy Kane's . . . The senior studies were interesting and the Casino also provided excitement . . . Who is going to win the basketball oscar—Scott or Paul???? Remember fifth period senior study that was held in Mr. Chaisson's room, and the time that dashing, debonair Scott Nicholson gracefully fell over two desks before Miss Ripley dashed into the room. John Covell in his usual line of leadership was the first to depart, setting an example for the rest of the Seniors . . . Never forget Minot, Perochee, the "Ingenus", or the "Sewing Club" . . . Janet's W.W. III P.J. party. . . .

Yes. we've had many memories from the past but we owe our success of this year to two of the greatest people that made it the greatest year . . . our advisors Mrs. Burns and Mr. McArdle.

This year our class's artistic ability has been used to make the Chimes one of the most interesting in the past few years. It also contains a large candid section which will entertain when looked back upon later. We editors would like to extend many thanks to Torrey Capo who is responsible for many athletic candids appearing throughout the book.

Also the work and guidance provided by Mrs. Greene and Miss Hawkes has been greatly appreciated.

student council

The Student Council took many major steps this year—both in becoming a better representative of student opinions, and bringing the students closer to the faculty and administration. Senior Ray Sousa was president with Connie Bennett as vice president, Maryann Ouellette as secretary and Manuel Monteiro as treasurer making up the executive board. Grandma Cote served another year as an enthusiastic advisor.

I am very glad to introduce myself. My name is Abdelghani Bouchouar. I am the third child in a family of seven children, two girls and five boys.

My father is a farmer. The farm is the only source for our living. I am the only child in the family that has a modern education. My other brothers attend religious schools which fortunately I missed by accident. I did my twelve grades in ten years. Last years I was in Meknes in a boarding school. We had to take a lot of English courses for preparation to college. If I hadn't moved to Meknes, I would never have come to the U.S.A. I hope English and this new experience will help me to succeed in life. I am very glad to be in this particular area of the U.S.A. I like my family very much and I wish to have a good time with the teenagers of my school.

In the spring of 1967 Scituate High hosted the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival and our chorus came away with the first place trophy in Class B. This year we will be competing in Class A and striving toward another trophy under the capable direction of Mr. Hermance. Serving as officers are Steve Hailer, president, and Jay Hutchinson, vice-president.

When I bought this pre-fab set, they said that everything went together, slot A with tab B—now where does this piece go?

Mr. Hermance, please, I'd rather sing this song myself.

bubble trouble

The music department of Scituate High presented "Bubble Trouble" last March 10 and 11. It was the story of Alonso Rudebaker, the owner of Snowflake Soap Factory, and his fight to make bubble-free soap and of his son, Sonny's fight for recognition. It is also the story of D.J. Wooten, an advertising executive, trying to land the Snowflake account, and of his niece, Hermonie Pemletter, who always seemed to mess things up for her uncle. All attending agreed a tremendous job was done, and the entire cast is grateful to Mr. Hermance who is responsible for the success of the musical.

"Will you marry me?" "Yes, if you can wait till I graduate from the Academy!"

"I don't care, no son of mine is going to marry a Cadet."

"We know something you don't know!"

drum major

The S.H.S. marching band and majorettes worked hard this year and added color and spirit to the Mighty Munchkins winning season. The band was led through vigorous (well guys, they were!) halftime shows by senior drum major, Jay Hutchinson. Debbie Franzen, a junior, was captain of the majorettes and deserves a lot of credit for creating snappy routines.

The Concert Band worked hard to bring about a fine concert at Christmas and in the spring.

S.H.S. students will always remember our first period alarm clock . . . the music room!

OCL CHAMPS

This being Mr. Mahoney's first championship team as head coach has caused a much needed increase in school spirit. Every one saw each of the boys out there plugging every minute of each game. The seniors did a fine job aided by many promising juniors. Next year's team should do just as well. But no one will forget our little "MIGHTY MUNCHKINS", Scituate's Secret Society of Success!!! The Varsity ended its tremendous season with an 8–1 record scoring 201 points against 56. They boast 5 shut-outs. The J.V.'s ended with a record of 8–0 with 306 points scored during the season. The Sophomores finished with a 2–4 record. The Freshmen's record was 8–2 winning 8 straight after their first 2 losses.

This season our hockey team has improved greatly. Promotion of the sport has brought increased support from the student body. This year's team was capably led by Captain Rick Cunha. A record number of Freshmen came out for the team which promises even better teams in the near future. (Our early season record is 2–5.)

wrestling

One of wrestling's biggest upsets!!

The wrestling team ended its season with a record of 3–7. Captain Kevin Curtis lead the squad with no defeats. He is also one of New England's outstanding wrestlers, winning the Bay State Championship twice in the 165 pound class, the Greater Boston Championship, the Massachusetts State Championship, and second place in the New England Championship. Bob Parent, another Senior on the team, has won the Greater Boston Championship and the Bay State Championship in the 120 pound class. Also doing well on the team were Paul Malloy, Steve Gorman, and Rennie Caldwell, a surprising freshman.
